7:30-8:30pm-Meeting called to order by new 2019 Chapter President, Dawna Scheich.

- Items for discussion:

- Please join ENA. There is now a “quarterly” payment option this year instead of the usual annual one lump sum fee.
- The Nassau/Queens Chapter Annual Education Conference will be held on June 5, 2019 at the Immaculate Conception Hall in Douglaston, Queens. Please contact Mary Schmidt-Roth or Dawna Scheich if you have any ideas for guest speakers. Mary will need assistance this year with CEU applications for the conference.
- Also discussed were volunteer ideas for our group: the annual Nassau County Police Department 5K that will be held on August 12, 2019 and possibly a medical mission in conjunction with Northwell Health.
- In addition to our usual TNCC and ENPC courses, we may add a CEN review course this year, if possible.
- The next TNCC course will be held in May 2019 and ENPC -td as new course modules are being finalized.

-Ruth Reed, Delegate: February 2019 First State Meeting at Binghamton: Report:

- The NYSENA “Setting the Pace” Conference will be held on April 11-12, 2019 in Saratoga, NY.
- The second State Meeting will be that Saturday April 13, 2019.
- State meeting included discussions regarding the various educational sessions to be held as well as this year’s theme: “A Night at the Races”! Don’t forget to wear your Kentucky Derby best! There will also be the usual meet and greet with the Medical supply vendors, raffles and cash bar!
- The new National Headquarters for the ENA in Illinois will have a paved brick pathway. All Chapters are encouraged to “Buy a Brick”. Bricks may be engraved in memoriam, or dedication.
- Members were reminded of the various scholarship programs and awards sponsored by ENA. Please recognize your Emergency Room co-worker and ENA members and nominate someone who may be deserving of these rewards or further

- your own education by applying for one of the scholarships offered (e.g.: the Anita Dorr Award, 9/11 scholarships). Please see the ENA website for more information.
- This year's National ENA Conference will be held in Austin, TX in September 2019. We will need Delegates. If interested, please see the NYSENA website.
